

Freedom To Age In Our Community

As the only nursing home facility in the Homer area, South Peninsula Hospital Long Term Care is pleased to offer local residents the freedom to age in our community. If you – or a loved one – are thinking it may soon be time for a move, we invite you to learn more about our staff, facility and services. Please call us with any questions, to schedule a tour, or to be placed on our waiting list.

Payment Options

We accept payments from a variety of sources, including private pay, private insurances, VA, Medicare or Medicaid. Our Social Services department is happy to discuss financial details and payment options, and can assist with questions you might have. Please contact Social Services at 907-235-0228 or email longtermcare@sphosp.org.

“What a blessing this has turned out to be for our parents and our whole family.”

“The residents are treated with the utmost care and respect. They are honored and loved 24/7.”

“The staff goes way beyond the call of duty to make sure birthdays, anniversaries and family visits are made very special.”

“The whole facility is spotless.”

Long Term Care

Love Where You Live

South
Peninsula
Hospital

South Peninsula Hospital Long Term Care in Homer, Alaska offers a home to 28 residents. Our facility can provide transitional care to help residents regain independence after surgery, illness or injury, as well as ongoing, round-the-clock nursing care (sometimes referred to as nursing home care or skilled nursing care).

At South Peninsula Hospital Long Term Care, we believe our work is about more than providing care 24 hours a day. It's about giving hope and overcoming fear. It's about relating to our residents as people, not as patients. It's helping you or your loved one make the transition to a new role. It's celebrating life for the remarkable journey it has been, and cherishing the experiences still to come. Most importantly, our care is personalized for every resident who comes into our facility.

Our Facility

Our facility, which is conveniently located adjacent to South Peninsula Hospital, includes semi-private rooms, a fireplace, deck, dining area, and dayroom with a spectacular view of Kachemak Bay. Residents are encouraged to personalize their rooms with artwork, decorations, plants and other keepsakes to make them homey and comfortable. Residents and their families enjoy holiday functions, candlelight dinners, and many organized activities.
