

Standards for Rotary Health Fair Exhibitors 2019

The purpose of the Rotary Health Fair is to promote individual wellness and to encourage individuals to lead healthier lives. The Rotary Health Fair invites exhibitors to provide learning centers to promote their particular educational message. Learning centers encourage active involvement in learning about health and wellness.

Requirements:

1. Exhibitors must complete and return the exhibitor Application Form which includes the Waiver of Liability acknowledging they have read and agree to abide by the Standards for Rotary Health Fair Exhibitors. Upon approval by the Health Fair Committee, the exhibitor will be notified if they have been approved and may participate.
2. Exhibitors are encouraged to provide handouts and free promotional items. No fees may be assessed for any purpose
3. Exhibits must be staffed at all times from the time the Fair opens at 7:30 am until it closes at 1 p.m. Exhibitors agree to be ready when the doors open and not to break down any portion of the booth until 1 p.m. Exhibitors who do not comply may not be invited back in future years. Each exhibitor will be responsible for setting up his/her own exhibit the evening before the fair or the morning of the fair between 6:30 and 7:30 a.m. All exhibits must be identified with name of the organization. The identification must be above or next to the exhibit and be no larger than 2'x3'.
4. Exhibit learning centers must contribute to the overall theme of the Rotary Health Fair, which is to promote wellness and encourage individuals to lead healthier lives, or provide information concerning health services available in the community. Advertising, banners, or displays for the purpose of selling products or services is not allowed.
5. Exhibit learning centers should be attractive and reflect careful preparation to invite interaction between participant and exhibitor. Materials considered offensive or inappropriate for young children may not be exhibited in public view at the health fair. These include but are not limited to.
 - a. Pictures or depictions of murder, maiming or trauma or the results thereof; and
 - b. Nudity or sexually explicit materials such as those relating to childbirth, violent trauma, or obscene language.
6. Soliciting any group or individual is not allowed, including but not limited to
 - a) Selling or offering to sell a product or services including making appointments for services or products;
 - b) Taking participant's personal information for future solicitation or activities involving petition signing;
 - c.) Describing or advertising specific services as a goal of the display.
 - d.) Raffles, fundraising or ticket sales of any kind
 - e.) Only upon request of the consumer may an exhibitor dispense information.
 - f.) All materials must be contained in your booth and not distributed elsewhere throughout the Rotary Health Fair.
7. When exhibitors representing politically charged or opposite viewpoints on health promotion cannot settle differences by themselves and if their differences disrupt the smooth running of the Rotary Health Fair, the disputants will be asked to leave. Harassment of participants or staff will be grounds for dismissal from the site.
8. The Rotary Health Fair Committee has the authority to dismiss an exhibitor from the site if these standards are not met. Exhibitors who do not comply with the standards may be prohibited from participation in the future.
9. Late applications will not be included in the Rotary Health Fair marketing due to media deadlines.
10. Late applications will be placed on a waiting list once they are approved by the Rotary Health Fair Committee. Late applications are subject to space availability with no guarantees for placement.
11. Final decisions regarding standards and exhibitor participation rests with the Rotary Health Fair Committee.
